SOLIHULL STUDY SPACES

Sponsor a chair for our new study spaces

Support Solihull School's bold vision to reimagine The Kent Library, once a cutting-edge facility, now ready for transformation into a vibrant hub for learning at the heart of the school. For a £1,000 donation, you can sponsor a chair in this inspiring new space, contributing directly to the library's rebirth and leaving a meaningful legacy.

SOLIHULL

World-class design and collaboration

We are honoured to work with Luke Hughes and Company, renowned for creating exceptional study spaces for leading institutions worldwide. Together with architect Ian Brinksman, who brings nearly two decades of experience with Solihull School, we are designing a library that respects our history and meets the needs of the future.

Join us: sponsor a chair

Your £1,000 sponsorship supports:

- A named plaque on a library chair, celebrating your support for generations to come.
- Recognition in our Synergy Campaign honour roll, acknowledging all contributors.
- Invitation to an exclusive preview event in the new library space.

APPLICATION FORM

Each plaque is 41cm in diameter and offers space for a personalised inscription of up to 7 lines. Kindly write your desired wording opposite, using clear print and not exceeding the character guidance given per line.
